Objectives:
Students will be able to:
- work in collaborative groups to discuss and plan a community service event using peanut butter.

National Learning Standards:
Common Core English Language Arts
- Speaking and Listening Standards K-5; Comprehension and Collaboration, 1: Engage effectively in a range of collaborative discussions with diverse partners on grade 3 topics and texts, building on others’ ideas and expressing their own clearly.

Activity Description:
Students will discover the nutritional value of peanut butter and its use as an aid tool for malnutrition. Students will work in collaborative groups to build on one another’s ideas and create a community service plan to connect food pantries, and others in need, with peanut-based products.

Materials
- Jar of peanut butter
- Paper (1 per group)
- Colored pencils/markers (1 set per group)
- List of local food pantries and/or community service organizations

Activity Steps
Activity Prep: Research local food pantries and community service organizations in your area.

Step 1: Hold up a jar of peanut butter. Ask students what is in the jar. As students answer, push them to explain more. Listen for students to identify nutrients, including protein, necessary for healthy growth and development. Peanut butter also has long shelf-life, which allows it to be stored until needed by food service organizations.

Step 2: Using a projector, white board, or simple explanation, share the key nutrients found in peanuts and peanut butter.

Step 3: Inform students that peanut butter is used to help people who are malnourished and hungry all around the world. In fact, peanut butter is one of the most sought-after foods at food pantries! Peanut butter is an excellent source of niacin and a good source of vitamin E and magnesium.18

Step 4: Inform students that they will work in groups to plan and execute a community service event involving peanut butter.

Step 5: Share examples of peanut-based community service events.
- April 9th is National Peanut Butter and Jelly Day. Students around the country prepare PB&J sandwiches for hungry families.
- The restaurant chain The Cheesecake Factory holds an annual peanut butter drive and has donated nearly 790,000 jars of peanut butter since 2008.19
- Peanut Proud, a Georgia-based non-profit organization of the U.S. peanut industry, has donated almost 400,000 jars of peanut butter since 2013.20
- In Rhode Island, Washington Trust’s annual Peanut Butter Drive has collected more than 240,000 jars of peanut butter for local food banks since 2001.21
- In Ohio, Lifeline Christian Mission has donated more than 350,000 jars of peanut butter for their Peanut Butter for Haiti program since 2012.22
- Which Wich sponsors ProjectPBJ.com, hosting spreading parties and giving peanut butter and jelly sandwiches to the needy. 23

Step 6: Share a list of local food pantries and community service organizations as needed. Have groups work to

It’s A Fact!
