Hey, buddy! I just found out you and I have a lot in common!

How can that be? I'm not a vegetable!

Neither am I! I'm actually a fruit!

And I'm not a true nut! I'm actually a legume!

When you squish a lot of tomatoes, you get ketchup! It tastes great on hot dogs!

Cool! Squishing peanuts makes peanut butter! Peanut butter goes with lots of stuff! I like peanut butter and banana sandwiches!

Are you thinking what I'm thinking? Peanut butter and ketchup!

High five!

Chomp!

Ulp!!

Oh well... nobody's perfect!

It's true! Most people do not like PB&K (peanut butter and ketchup) sandwiches, but PB&G (peanut butter and banana) sandwiches are delicious! Try one and see if you agree.
